Stabilization Of Leading Currencies Is Imminent

BENNETT PUTS CANADA'S CASE BEFORE PARLEY

Presses for Concerted Action to Raise World Level of Prices

By GEORGE HAMILTON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, June 15.—In present term Prime Minister R. B. Bennett today advanced Canada's case before the World Economic Conference. He pressed for concerted international action to raise the world level of wholesale prices.

But this alone would not solve the immediate difficulties of the producers of primary products, he told the conference. The accumulated surpluses of 35 million bushels of wheat could be dealt effectively with only by international agreement involving a possible reduction of acreage sown to wheat until the abnormal carryover which continued to depress the market had been disposed of.

Prime Minister Bennett described as "most reassuring" statement versus wheat by Nevill Chamberlain, Chancellor of the British Exchequer, that the world's greatest wheat-importing nation was prepared to meet the emergency.

SERIOUS CONSIDERATION
"And we would suggest," the Canadian Prime Minister said in his closing tones, "that the importing countries should give their serious consideration to the suggestion that they should take up a 'skeleton' case sufficient to warrant holding Lamontos for trial.

In Silver Seen
Ontario's Bonus

TORONTO, June 15.—Payment of $100,000 silver by Britain to the United States on account of war debts was seen last night as beneficial to silver mining in Ontario, according to men associated with the industry.

"It would have a good effect on the silver market," said F. C. Grayson, president of the Standard Stock & Mining Exchange. "It takes a lot of silver mining."

He pointed out that there is to the extent of 100,000 tons more silver in Ontario than there is in the rest of Canada, and that a greater effect on silver mining activity than a similar payment in silver would be on gold-mining activity.

CUT WHEAT ACREAGE

Canada is generally understood to favor cutting wheat acreage, and the government has adopted this method to the conference along with serious consideration of methods for increasing their purchases of grain.

The government of the Argentine has also recommended a cut in wheat acreage, although the Argentine Senate last night declared itself opposed to such a measure.

PUT STOP TO SPECULATION IN EXCHANGE

World Economic Confer- ence at London Forges Steadily Ahead

By GEORGE HAMILTON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, June 15.—The World Conference forged steadily ahead today with indications that stabilization of leading currencies was imminent, settlement of troublesome question of chairmanship of the vital monetary committee, and from outside the lifting of the clouds of apprehension by an announcement of the British war-debt instalment to the United States.

Prime Minister R. B. Bennett of Canada chief speaker in the plenary session, declared the U.S. and Great Britain should stabilize their currencies without delay and when agreement was reached Canada was ready to stabilize her dollar in London and New York.

For the conference of currency experts including treasury officials it was learned de facto stabilization of the dollar had virtually been achieved.

The dollar steadied at 25.000 francs, 2.500 kroner and 2.500 lire.

It was understood the experts would accept a 25 per cent cut in the exchange rate to stop speculation in foreign exchange.

Jesse M. Cox, member of the United States delegation, was elected chairman of the monetary committee by the conference steering committee.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Rev. Father Caulfield, Detroit's radio priest, for the ninth part of his life a radio priest, has been invited to the world meet next tomorrow to the World Economic Conference.

Senators and Congressmen selected President Franklin D. Roosevelt to send.

Members of congress in a letter addressed to the president said the world of affairs, economics and finance, had the confidence of millions, and that his presence would instill confidence in the hearts of the delegates.

After the previous discussions the United States had formed limited agreement with Argentina and Canada and have not commented on the specific policy, although the Argentine seems last night declared itself opposed to such a measure.

WORLD CONFERENCE MOVES TOWARDS REALITIES

British Debt Is Paid In Silver

By CLAUDE A. JAGGER
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, June 15.—Payments of $100,000,000 silver on Great Britain's debt were cashed at 75c. per $100,000 due the United States June 15 was announced in the House of Commons last night by Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, who said that the arrangement had settled the "debt pending final settlement."

Simultaneously, the Chancellor stated formal debt negotiations between Great Britain and United States would be completed as soon as possible in accordance with President Roosevelt's request to him.

The United States accepted the partial payment, the Chancellor declared, and the two governments have the freedom of either government in subsequent discussions.

GATES OF HOPE.

None of the arrangement was hailed by the American delegation to the world economic conference and the Chancellor with high hopes that it might open the way for general progress toward economic rehabilitation.

The partial payment, Mr. Chamberlain said, was an emotionally cheering house, will be made in silver at 50 cents a fine ounce and constitutes a formal acknowledgment of her obligation to America under the war debt account.

Labour leader, Mr. J. H. Thomas, plauding the arrangement, joined Mr. Chamberlain in praising President Roosevelt for his leadership of the scheme of payment.

"The difficult and delicate problem," he said, "was how the Chancellor announced in revealing the results of several days anxious negotiations between London and Washington.

GOOD AUGURY.

"It is a good augury for the success of the world economic Conference and may prove the first step toward complete and final agreement on the debts of the war debts."

The Chancellor revealed that the British government had hoped it would be possible for United States to accept a sum of June installment before the conference began.

The American press was gratified by the statement of Stafford Cripps, Labor spokesman, for whom the news came as he has the faced the situation.

The British government maintained this hope up to a very recent date, but in the end it became clear that it could not be realized. They therefore had to take the course of action in these circumstances as they found them.

The American press was gratified by the statement of Stafford Cripps, Labor spokesman, for whom the news came as he has the faced the situation.

Sir Herbert Samuel, Liberal leader, expressed his satisfaction at the agreement of the Roosevelt action in according to the agreement, which was a profound relief to all.

COST STAYS SAME.

It was indicated in the House of Commons last night that Great Britain's $10,000,000 debt would remain at $100,000,000 inasmuch as it was tendered in silver at the rate of 50 cents an ounce, the same rate as the United States permitted under recent Congress authorization up to $200,000,000.

Chamberlain said that the sum had been acquired from the government of India, but did not indicate whether the payments of the metal, however, have been about two-thirds of the $50 cent per ounce rate.

He hopes to buy off from the United States. Sir Robert Horne, former chancellor of the Exchequer, commended this arrangement as a real saving.

Some time ago the British noted that the United States had agreed to a 35 per cent reduction in its June payment to the United States.

NOT WILL BOB UP

Was definitely no going on the program of the London conference. They were omitted purposely, for the same reason one doesn't throw gun-powder in the family cook stove. No action regarding the debts is contemplated at the conference. The delegates are not expected to waste time talking about them.

Premier MacDonald mentioned the debts in his opening address, reminding the assembly that until these are settled in some way the conditions for world recovery will not be fully met and not entirely recovered. Mr. Chamberlain did not make any mention then of the following day.

All of the speakers during the first day of speech-making only two succeeded in keeping away from the subject. The others, including Frank Smith, who spoke on debts, perhaps because France is not paying anyway. The Japanese minute man steered clear of the debt question, perhaps because Japan is neither a truly independent nation nor a creditable member of the bank.

At the moment, all the other speakers in this preliminary general conference of views broke the taboo and referred to the debts.

Keeping the debt question out of the conference is about as hopeful as it is to expect the bank disease without mentioning the avoidance of mud and rocks that fall upon the houses and crush them.

THE HOPPERS

For years officials at the Dominion experimental farm at Lethbridge have been sending out warnings every spring that a hopper plague will be present in Alberta. Alberta has had no major outbreak every year, just enough to confirm their apprehensions. But a campaign of destruction with favoring weather conditions, has served every season to check the pests and prevent widespread crop damage.

This year, it is said, the hoppers are more numerous than ever before. Potato mixing stations have been opened at fifty points in the southern country. The stations are set up to receive the hops and location of the stations indicate the wide range over which the menace hangs. But they indicate also that the campaign is being launched on a correspondingly wide scale.

The campaign of destruction is a assurance that, with the co-operation of the farmers in the districts affected, the damage can be kept within bounds and anything like a general loss of the southern crops avioded.

The campaign has no particular preference for that part of the province. It would just as soon set up the growing grain in central and northern Alberta. That the destroyers are unusually numerous in the south means that the rest of the province is more than commonly liable to invasion if dry weather should come while the plants are young and tender.

WHAT ABOUT THE CONSUMER?

Everybody seems to have got a hearing at the mill inquiry except the bumble bee necessary industry which is not represented.

The producers have told the Public Utility Commission what they want. The distributors have explained what they would like to have. The consumers, most of whom are not even in the city, are silent. The city should be drawn from within a radius of fifteen miles, or whether farmers living beyond that charmed circle should also be allowed to sell milk in the city, they want to know.

The consumer has no particular preference for that part of the province. He would just as soon set up the growing grain in central and northern Alberta. That the destroyers are unusually numerous in the south means that the rest of the province is more than commonly liable to invasion if dry weather should come while the plants are young and tender.

POEMS THAT LIVE

THE IMPATIENT LOVER

Be your words made good Sirs of Indian ware,

That you allow me them by so small rate?

Or do you mean my tender ears to spare,

That to my questions you so total are?

Or do you mean your love to share,

Say again, forsooth you left her well of late;

God, think you that satisfies my care?

I could know whether she did sit or walk;

How clothed when seated, when she shir,

Whereof—with whom—how often did she talk;

With what pantimes times' rhyme she be gusted.

If I am designed to sweeten my poor name;

Say all, and all well said, still say the same;

Fruit Prospects Are Good

CANADA CROP PROMISES TO BE AVERAGE

Estimate of Apples Not Possible, But Bloom is Heavy

OTTAWA, June 15—Fruit crop prospects for Canada on June 1 were quite promising, according to a bulletin issued Wednesday by the fruit branch of the agricultural department here. Strawberries and raspberries are not expected to vary greatly from last year's production. Currants are particularly favorable except in British Columbia where winter killing seriously reduced raspberry production.

Apples, cherries, plums, and peaches indicate decreased yields in Ontario and Quebec, while the injury is not expected to affect the yield of beet-peaches and apricots in British Columbia.

The cherry production forecast is about the same as last year in Ontario, while the crop is expected in British Columbia. Pear production is also expected to be about the same as last year, although a slight increase is anticipated in British Columbia.

An estimate of the production is not possible at the present time but bloom was heavy throughout the country. The fruit trees in Nova Scotia and trees are progressing favorably. Although the season in British Columbia is running 10 days later than usual due to backward weather.

Commercial apple and cantaloupe plantings in British Columbia are reported larger than in 1932 by 26 per cent and 27 per cent respectively.

PEACE RIVER TRAPPER MARRIED AS HE LAY UPON HIS DEATHBED

Grim Reaper Ends Happy Marriage That Had Scarcely Begun

PEACE RIVER, June 15.—Frank and Buckle, well-known trappers of the Lower Peace died on Tuesday afternoon in the municipal hospital here, both having collapsed from shock and grief, thus bringing to an end a happy marriage that had scarcely begun.

A romantic adventure such as has been terminated by death only occurs in story books. But here in North America the truth lies in the truth that death is stranger than fiction.

Ruckle died following amputation of his right foot, as a result of infection.

FAMILIAR FIGURE

Big and hairy, rugged as the vast reaches of the Lower Peace, he has become a familiar figure in the town.

Happy as a lark and full of jolly good humor, he had implemented the happy day when Northern Alberta Railways train arrived bringing the lady of his dreams to the city to be his wife.

Back to the north where she was to stay, he went to the banks of the Rhine, set out on the new trail he had started, and while she leaving him, he followed her on the frontiers of civilization.

While wandering with his dogs, he met the Grim Reaper in the dreamy wastes of Lehr and Kaiman. Buckle inadvertently stepped on a trap.

He penetrated his carcass and lay upon his deathbed.

It attracted the attention of his wife, who came to his side.

HERE'S LESSON ON TOLERANCE

DEAR MISS DIX—Don't you think that the young are more tolerant and less critical than old people? My wife and I, who are young, have been subjected to her mother and an elderly aunt who are old. We both contend that the old learn through experience how to make more allowances for the faults and shortcomings of others. Which of us is right?

S. S.

Annoyance is a virus which we greatly admire in other people, but seldom practice ourselves. Moreover, when we do practice it, it is usually only with those who are younger than ourselves. To those who have the same habits and viewpoints that we have and who do pretty much what we do, we often feel that making us wonder kind, you're right.

But as for tolerating other people's opinions and ways of life and habits and customs and when they differ entirely from ours, that is something else again. There are many old people either young or old, who are big enough and broad-minded enough to accord the other full and free right to live his life in his own way.

Dorothy Dix

You think that youth is more tolerant because it does not criticize the younger generation as older people do. But that is because youth is judging youth. You have a different viewpoint on morals and customs, but that is not the reason. Youth is more tolerant because in a disregard of all the old standards of propriety that is shocking to your elders.

The Housewife's Idea Box

You don't criticize Mary and Sally for wearing lingerie like fur coats or getting drunk at parties or going off to bed early. You don't mind the use of language that would make the steadiest husband bewilder the most innocent part of the younger generation. But if you happen to belong to the minority, you never know whether a girl should keep herself clean and pure and, at least, be modest. You never know whether you find yourself not so tolerant of what Mary and Sally do. Jane does.

When you look into the matter you will find that the younger generation is just as interested in the older generation as they are. The younger generation considers the older generation particularly. The younger generation is the younger one, hell-bent. The younger generation thinks the older generation is foolish. The older generation considers the younger one foolish. The older generation thinks youth is too rank and impulsive. The younger generation is the one for being easily satisfied. So there you are, and neither has any sense or understanding of the other.

Of course, age should have more tolerance than youth because it has seen so much of the good and the bad in the world and other people's humanity is the victim of its virtues well as its faults. But we are not made by environment and how completely we are shaped by it is something else again. Some men and women learn this lesson and as they grow older their tolerance increases. But there is a limit until they cease to sit in judgment upon their fellow men.

They can understand that that drags a man down into the gutter. A great deal that makes him sell her soul to get it; a love that makes him break his heart. They are temptations that would never touch them, but there are some that drive others irresistibly along a path that they would not even dream of. And so they are tolerant even of that of which they disapprove.

But, unfortunately, the tendency of age is to narrow and not to broaden the mind, but to concentrate rather than to dissipate them, and so most people do get "set." As the saying goes, "Age is a great teacher, but it has little time and views and have little tolerance of anything outside of them."

Young Bride Believes Waffle Iron Is Magic Gift

Any Season, Served Any Way, Waffles Are Delicious

By SISTER MARY

Lucky indeed is the bride who numbers a waffle iron among her wedding or housewarming gifts. There are few other brides that are as enthusiastic about it as myself with enthusiasm at any meal from breakfast to the after-breakfast party. As a matter of convenience or in economy, the waffle iron is the dessert, a crisp golden brown, delicious every body.

Rich waffles are creamed chicken or fish, plain or with eggs, maple syrup or honey, waffles with strawberries, chocolate waffles and ice cream, ginger waffle and whipped cream, green bean waffles—that just a few suggestions for varying the menu. They are very good.

IDEAL FOR EMERGENCIES

One important point in favor of waffles lies in the fact that they can be prepared in a short time. This puts them in the first rank of "emergency" dishes, for the bride who has not had time to prepare or has not had time to plan or no time to be bothered.

Remember that waffle batter is a "pour" batter. For this reason it is best to pour the batter into the batter in a pitcher and pour it on the waffle iron rather than dip it in with a spoon.

Never wash a waffle iron! The cast-iron must be seasoned before each use after the first. The material should not be washed. After each baking wipe with soft crumpled cloth and rub with a stiff brush with a stiff brush kept for the purpose.

PLAIN WAFFLES

One and one-half cups flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1 egg, 1 cup milk, 1/2 cup water, 1/2 cup melted butter. Mix and beat until smooth. Pour into a greased waffle iron. Remove excess with tissue paper. Bake in a mild oven, 350 degrees. Close them tight and repeat the process.

Canadian Wheat May Start Flow Over U.S. Routes

Conferences Are Held Between American, British Customs

NEW YORK. June 15.—Revised shipment of Canadian grain through the United States to ports within the U.S. Dominion is expected to result from conferences held recently by representatives of the Canadian customs officials of the British government, the port of New York authority and British officials.

It was said a misunderstanding as to the method of billing the grain shipments had delayed the trade agreement act has been terminated through conferences in London between M. Morgan, president of the North American Export Grain Association, Inc., Walter P. Hedges, chief of the New York authority and British officials.

SHIPPERS REDUCED

While export shipments of Canadian grain at New York reduced 4.9 per cent. between Jan. 1 and May 6, as compared with the corresponding period last year, the adjustment should be cleared up through the issuance of instructions to the Canadian government which have been specified by British officials, it was said today.

M. Morgan and Mr. Hedges left May 1 for London to discuss the continuation of their trade.
